About The Thanks-Giving Foundation:

The Thanks-Giving Foundation brings diverse peoples together on the common ground of gratitude. Our founders have imagined and constructed Thanks-Giving Square in the heart of downtown Dallas, the architecturally significant and spiritually important soul of the community. Anchored in The Square, we (TTGF) make North Texas a better place to live, work and play by educating, inspiring and moving its people towards becoming the City of Thanks-Giving. We are advocates and facilitators of personal transformation by means of individuals embracing gratitude, virtue and goodwill. Those transformed people form our transformed community.
